Figure 1: Schematic representation of the experimental design. The diagram illustrates a sequence of events in a word processing task. It shows a stimulus (a word, e.g., 'cat') being presented, followed by a response (the word being typed), and then feedback (the word being displayed). The sequence is repeated for multiple trials. The diagram is divided into three main sections: 'Stimulus', 'Response', and 'Feedback'. The 'Stimulus' section shows a word 'cat' being presented. The 'Response' section shows the word 'cat' being typed. The 'Feedback' section shows the word 'cat' being displayed. The sequence is repeated for multiple trials, with the word 'cat' being presented, typed, and displayed again. The diagram is labeled 'Figure 1' and 'Schematic representation of the experimental design'.
